

PF Series Impact Crusher Introduction

PF impact crusher has more than 50 years development history in our country. And its technical performance has reached international advanced level. Compared with general crusher, it not only has ordinary advantages of large crushing ratio, even size, less phenomenon of over-crushing, low energy consumption, easy maintenance, but also has wide range of adjustable size. Moreover, it is widely used in expressway, railway, water-power engineering and construction, etc.
